

המשיח MESHIAH Saliel Ginninns

Indeed, it is from god the almighty and indeed, it is from the expected messiah.

To the honorable children of Israel.
To the respected leaders, elders, and religious leaders of Israel.
And to the beloved community of the haredim.

May peace, wisdom, and the grace of God be upon you all.

I write these words with humility and sincerity, guided by a deep respect for your history, your faith, and your shared responsibility before God and humanity as chosen people. My intention is not to sow division, but to speak the truth with calmness, restraint, and reverence, so that justice and wisdom may prevail over the fear and aggression currently taking place between you and your neighbors.

I am a servant of God, called to deliver His word to you. I have not come to speak in my own name, but to be an instrument of His will and to bring His message to the world. Just like Moses, the great prophet, I am raised by God to guide and teach His people. My mission is to speak the truth, and no other truth than that which comes from God Himself. I have not come to gain honor for myself, but to lead you back to God's path and help you understand His will for your lives.

I am a prophet, sent to proclaim God's kingdom and the eternal hope that lies for those who seek God. I urge you to listen and receive God's word, for only by following His way can we find true freedom and peace.

The words I speak are not my own, but they come from the Most High, who has sent me to speak His truth. And I say this to you: If you listen to His words, if you follow His way, you will experience His presence and understand His plan for your lives. But if you choose to ignore this message, you will be responsible before God. It is my prayer that you will open your hearts to His word and follow the path that leads to eternal life.

I have closely observed you and your political leaders for some time now. It is with great sorrow that I must acknowledge that you have violated many of God's laws and commandments. One grave concern I wish to express is that you seem to be a people who seek short-term gains and lack the patience necessary to sustain your influence and prosperity in the long term.

It is my duty to warn you, for history has a tendency to repeat itself. Yes, you hold power today. You possess a strong economy, a powerful presence, and political influence on a global scale. But I warn you: this dominance could turn against you faster than you can imagine. In a single night, your world could change.

There are many crises ahead, and the world is facing several challenges, among which you are not immune. I believe that you, as a people and as leaders, must urgently seek to resolve your issues with your neighbors. I have tried to warn the political leaders in the country I currently reside in, but I was met with mockery and derision. It seems the people who govern here have lost their moral compass and have dismissed God and His guidance. They have chosen not to believe in God, but I am certain that God has a plan for all of us.

No, this is not something to be taken lightly. I urge you to take my words with the utmost seriousness. If you choose to ignore me, I will ignore you. If you mock me as they have done, I will not be able—or willing—to help you when you need it the most. There are over 8 billion people on this earth, and you are but a small part of that number—only 17 million.

Time is running out. I urge you to visit my personal blog to learn more about me and my teachings. Should you have any questions, feel free to contact me. <https://salielginninns.se/>
